Activities will change depending on the number of attendees and availability of events planned. Final activities will be decided in Roscigno the week before your arrival. Everyone will be given a copy of the agenda upon arrival. It is not mandatory that you attend any of the activities planned you would just need to opt out the night before so we can plan. Arriving and departure can be at your leisure. You can pick and choose how many days you want to spend in the village with us.

Best regards,

Tom
